Read it yourself, to see how terrify of what they say!!!

The defendant named the synagogue after himself, and also claimed that a family of six rabbis worked in the kitchen and lived in the synagogue. During World War II, the founder made contemptuous remarks about the Holocaust, and that Jews doing business in Taiwan were forced to hide alone in hotels eating canned dried goods because there was no food in Taiwan. Koshers ate only to survive, and the food was unbearably bad. According to the founder, the total Jewish population worldwide had vanished by 7 million. Detailed accounts are in the founder's own words, in a verbatim transcript of the program, bilingual (English + Traditional Chinese).
